EDMONTON BULLETIN MORNING EDITION

The Winnipeg school board has declined to take over the Roman Catholic schools in the city, under the new amendments to the Mani-toba school law. The purpose of these amendments, which no one has yet ventured to interpret, was has yet ventured to interpret, was plainly to put upon the school boards of the Province the duty of deeding whether or not there should be a form of separate school in Mantoba, and, if so, of establishing the schools. The Winniper board has consistently deedined to releve the consistently deedined to releve the most of the far, and has evidently how inten-tion, of doing of in future. Jean Ford, Pitcher, Accepts Terms With Edmonton Club

Jean Ford, brother of Russell Ford and Walter Ford, has accepted terms with the Edmonton baseball club. The announcement was made last night by Deacon White.

Jean Ford was for years one of the leading pitchers of the American Association and then went up to the big leagues, playing with Detroit. He never word down again but retired from baseball to go into business at which he was successful. Hearing from his younger brother, Walter Ford, who has been pitching in the Western Canada League for several years, about the richness and opportunities of Western Canada he came west and took a nonvested all Saskatchewan. In the winters Walter lived on his homestead close by and talked baseball all the time, the result being that the baseball bee got to buzzing in Jean's bonnet again and it required but little persuals that the baseball design of the distribution of the description of the distribution some four years ago.
